WHAT WOULD YOU DO WITH A DEAD BODY, A GUN AND A BAG FULL OF CASH?

Karl & Max are 2 ordinary guys on an ordinary trip... until they find a bag containing a gun and millions in cash. In this refreshing dramedy filled with suspense, humor and miscommunications, a single decision can change your whole life!

It's just another fishing trip until Karl and Max find an unconscious man covered in blood in a wrecked car that catches fire and explodes. And when they discover at their feet a bag containing a gun and a pile of cash, their lives are changed forever!

After taking the $2.6 million, Karl and Max are thrust into a world where they don't belong. In spite of themselves, they get caught up in a race against organized crime for the millions. Their previously uneventful lives are swept along by the unfolding events and the lies they spin to their loved ones.

As they try to rescue their dreams and relationships, they must first try to save their own skins!

A funny and dramatic series about friendship, love and the consequences of one single choice!
