Special Delivery

Game Show

What would you do if the next time you ordered a pizza the delivery guy was a game show host? What would you do if he offered you to play a crazy trivia game show with a chance to win a big cash prize?

'Special Delivery' is a crazy game show which sees a pizza delivered with a very special side order – a hot new format being sent straight to your door!

The rules are simple. Twelve questions in eight minutes. To move on to the next question, you must either answer correctly or eat a 'pizza from hell'.

The further you go, the crazier it gets!

Watch contestants play together to win big and eat whatever it takes to get there- Leftover pizza? Chicken leg pizza? Birthday cake pizza? The stakes are high!

Enjoy this spicy new game show format, but remember... be careful when you order!
