REVOLVES AROUND AGE-OLD THEMES OF FAMILY FEUDS, FORBIDDEN RELATIONSHIPS, HONOR & DUTY, FATE & FREE-WILL

8 years after his father banished him, Aviel Zagouri returns home at the request of his dying grandfather. On his deathbed, Aviel's grandfather makes him vow to re-open the family falafel stand – no matter what. And when Aviel's great-aunt puts a curse on the superstitious Zagouri family that can only be lifted by making the falafel stand a success, the vow begins to turn his family's life upside down!

From that moment on, every piece of bad luck is seen as a result of the curse, igniting battles among the family, raising age-old feuds and touching on their hidden and forbidden relationships.

YOU CAN'T RUN FROM YOUR FATE...
