Special camera glasses give new & unique perspective

Most credible mentalism show – all tricks filmed in one shot

Interactive segments with viewers at home

Perfect for family viewing

Master mentalist Nimrod Harel takes viewers on a journey inside his mind and provides a rare glimpse behind the curtains of the supernatural world. For the first time on television, age-old secrets are revealed through the eyes of the celebrity illusionist himself. Shot with special camera glasses, Mind Blowing enables viewers to watch incredible feats from the perspective of the mentalist himself, finally understanding the covert techniques that influence our subconscious and help him “read” our minds. Shot in one take and with no special effects, this is the only mentalism and magic show in the world in which the viewers can truly believe what they see, in a mind-blowing and magical experience.
