

MUNĀ منى

Scripted Drama, 8 x 30 mins
Broadcaster: Kan, Israel
Production: Drama Team

Can love really conquer all? The new intriguing drama based on true events that follows the story of Muna, a free-spirited and successful Arab-Israeli photographer. Together with her childhood friend and Israeli boyfriend she has created a life for herself in Tel Aviv, far from the Arab village in which she grew up. But when she is chosen to represent Israel at a prestigious international photography exhibition, her traditional father sees this as a betrayal to her people and of her roots. Set in a time of war, when violence and devastation forces everyone to pick sides, Muna must choose with whom her true loyalties lie. As her relationships fall apart, her business collapses and both Israeli and Arab society turns against her, will she choose to honor her heritage or follow her heart?

“
Convincing and brave.
– Yedioth Achronot newspaper”

“
One of the best original drama series from recent years, Muna manages to be both serious & light at the same time.
– Ha'aretz newspaper”

“
A love story full of sensitivity & humor.
– Lalsha magazine”